

I support granting ETC status to choice Communications to foster competition in the Virgin Islands and improve service in the Telecommunications industry.